FIRST SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY: 19 JUNE 2022 and the coming week at the cathedral

COLLECT PRAYER: O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Dominus, fortitudo plebis suae, et protector salutarium Christi sui est: salvum fac populum tuum, Domine, et benedic hereditati tuae, et rege eos usque in saeculum.

Ad te, Domine, clamabo, Deus meus, ne sileas a me: nequando taceas a me, et assimilabor descendentibus in lacum.

The Lord is the strength of His people, and the protector of the salvation of His anointed: save, O Lord, Thy people, and bless Thine inheritance, and rule them for ever.

NOTICES

Communion in two kinds

Following a recent change in the guidance and local discussion, the chalice is now offered at communion services. At the main Sunday morning Eucharist we will continue to administer communion from standing stations as we have been doing – and the chalice will be available for those who wish to have communion in both kinds. At other communion services the chalice will be administered following the distribution of the host.

Everyone is reminded that intinction (dipping the host into the wine) creates a problem for those who are gluten intolerant, as well as being less hygienic, and is therefore to be avoided – your co-operation in this would be appreciated!

Just Voting? On political participation and civic life by Maurice Glasman on 12th July, 6.30 p.m. (following Choral Evensong at 5.30 p.m.)

This will be looking at the restoration of agency in Catholic Social Teaching, exploring such themes as political participation, civic life, relational power. Baron Glasman is an English political theorist, academic, social commentator, and Labour life peer in the House of Lords. He is Professor of Politics at St Mary's University.

Tickets are available in advance, from the above link, or please contribute £5.00 in cash towards expenses on the day.
