

SUNDAY 17TH JULY

'JAZZ MACHINE' YOUTH JAZZ ORCHESTRA

Visitor Centre Courtyard | 12 noon – 1pm

Following the retirement of John Crouch, founder and Director for 35 years, Lincoln's Jazzpac stepped in to save this valuable musical platform for aspiring young musicians. With funding from the Postlethwaite Musical Foundation, EMJAZZ and forming a partnership with the Lincs Music Service a new orchestra, called 'Jazz Machine' has been successfully assembled.

We hope you enjoy this 'open rehearsal' of the orchestra alongside their mentors Dennis Rollins MBE, Andrew Wood, David Chambers and Ashley Squires.

SUNDAY 17TH JULY

DARIUS BRUBECK QUARTET

Chapter House | 7.30 – 9.45pm

Darius Brubeck – piano, Dave O'Higgins – saxophones, Matt Ridley double bass, Wesley Gibbens – drums. This Quartet has travelled the world, putting smiles on the faces of audiences everywhere, playing their engaging acoustic jazz. Their musical journey goes from historic standards via an Ellington classic to original compositions plus, of course, a suitable homage to Darius's father's well-loved hits.

The chemistry of the Quartet has to be seen to be appreciated' - Jazz Journal

SUNDAY 17TH JULY

EVENSONG with jazz soloist DAVE O'HIGGINS

St. Hugh's Choir | 3.45pm – 4.35pm

Saxophonist Dave O'Higgins will be joining singers from the Cathedral for this early evening act of worship. Medieval plainchant meets twenty-first century improvisation! Including works by Bryan Kelly and Sir Michael Tippett.

SUNDAY 17TH JULY

VELOCITY TRIO

Chapter House | 5.30pm – 6.45pm

The Festival's Artistic Director, virtuoso trombonist and composer, Dennis Rollins MBE is highly regarded on the British and International jazz scene. This trombone-led Trio, with Hammond organ and Drums, makes it a real surprise that it can paint such a broad canvas of melody and texture. Some new interpretations of Beatles songs have been especially developed for the Lincoln Festival. With excellent support from Ross Stanley, probably the most in-demand Hammond player in the UK, and Pedro Segundo's stunning drumming. This group exude class and endless virtuosity.

LINCOLN JAZZ FESTIVAL 2022

HOSTED BY LINCOLN CATHEDRAL

GREAT JAZZ IN A SPECTACULAR SETTING

FRIDAY 15TH JULY TO SUNDAY 17TH JULY

For details visit www.jazzpac.co.uk | www.lincolncathedral.com | lincolnjazzpac

WELCOME

Since Medieval times Gregorian Chant and Polyphonic music has resonated within the walls of this spectacular Cathedral. This July it plays host to a weekend festival of Jazz and Gospel music featuring leading musicians from the UK and overseas. The weekend opens with the London Community Gospel Choir and closes with the Darius Brubeck Quartet, with a host of musical treats in between.

Brought to the City by Lincoln Jazz in partnership with Lincoln Cathedral and with support from local businesses and East Midlands Jazz, all the events take place in and around the Cathedral making full use of the new Visitor Centre facilities set in the popular Cathedral Quarter including the Castle, the famous Steep Hill, Bailgate shopping together with the many cafes, restaurants, hotels and pubs.

For those not familiar with Lincoln there are links to where you can find help with travel, accommodation, parking and more at www.visitlincoln.com

The festival has received generous sponsorship from the following:

“ONE OF THE MOST IN-DEMAND CHOIRS”

📅 FRIDAY 15TH JULY 📅

LONDON COMMUNITY GOSPEL CHOIR – LEADER BAZIL MEADE MBE

📍 The Nave | 7pm - 9.15pm

Pioneering the sound of British Gospel Music, Europe's leading Gospel brand the LCGC are one of the most in-demand choirs across the globe. They've performed with the likes of Madonna, Paul McCartney, Annie Lennox & Elton John and at many prestigious events including Glastonbury and the FA Cup Final.

A unique blend of voices, personalities and artistry from an eclectic mix of united nations and ages from diverse backgrounds makes this choir a truly special, ground breaking, force in Gospel Music today. Dennis Rollins MBE will also be making a special guest appearance alongside the choir during this special evening.

📅 SATURDAY 16TH JULY 📅

NEW YORK BRASS BAND

📍 The Dean's Garden/Courtyard | 11.30am – 12.30pm
📍 The Chapter House | 1.30pm – 2.45pm

The New York Brass Band love a good festival and good festivals love NYBB. 100% Live, funky brash brass, proving their versatile cross-over style of music works for many audiences. This joyous octet have jammed with Rick Astley at the Rewind 80s festival and appeared on the Hell Stage at Glastonbury, playing with a definite New Orleans undertone. They will initially perform an outdoor 'Party Set' before moving inside to the Chapter House.

📅 SATURDAY 16TH JULY 📅

DEREK NASH ACOUSTIC QUARTET

📍 The Chapter House | 3.30pm – 4.45pm

This Quartet features some of the best exponents of jazz in the UK from four brilliant four musicians, Derek Nash – saxophone, David Newton – piano, Geoff Gascoyne – double bass and Sebastiaan de Krom – drums. Performing original compositions alongside unique arrangements of jazz classics, from smooth cool to groovy funk, standards to gorgeous ballads, their music fizzes with energy.

📅 SATURDAY 16TH JULY 📅

FESTIVAL DINNER with the ANDREW WOOD TRIO

📍 Cathedral Café | 5.00pm – 7.00pm

Andrew 'Woody' Wood has established himself as the 'go-to' drummer in the East Midlands region whilst also leading his own groups. His long established and accomplished Trio with Matthew Ratcliffe – piano/keys and Martyn Spencer double bass, will be providing first class musical accompaniment for the diners.

📅 SATURDAY 16TH JULY 📅

'TWO FOR THE ROAD' - CLAIRE MARTIN OBE AND DAVID NEWTON

📍 The Chapter House | 9.15pm – 10.30pm

We are delighted to present vocalist Claire Martin accompanied by pianist extraordinaire David Newton with their brand new show for 2022. Combining their unique talents for this intimate concert celebrating the recording, of the same title, by jazz legends Carmen McRae and George Shearing.

A unique evening of sophisticated, world class music, from this multi-awarding winning Duo. 'our finest jazz singer' - The Times

📅 SATURDAY 16TH JULY 📅

PEGGY'S ALL STARS PLAY BLUE NOTE

📍 The Chapter House | 7.15pm – 8.30pm

Peggy's Skylight is the fabulous jazz club in Nottingham which recently won The Parliamentary Jazz Venue of The Year Award and this Quintet brings the Club's House Trio of Paul Deats – piano, Simon Paterson – double bass and Andrew Wood – drums together with the horns of Thom Whitworth – trumpet and Eliot Richards – saxophone. A regular hit with the local 'Commuter Jazz' audience and, once again, a pleasure to be able to present regional musicians of the highest quality.

📅 SUNDAY 17TH JULY 📅

JAZZ EUCHARIST featuring the DEREK NASH QUARTET and the LINCOLN CATHEDRAL CONSORT with members of the CATHEDRAL CHOIR with directors ARIC PRENTICE & ALANA BROOK

📍 St. Hugh's Choir | 10.30am – 12pm

Recent collaborations between Lincoln's NJ5/Jazzpac and the Cathedral Musical Director, Aric Prentice, bringing a jazz music element to this Service, have been well received by both the congregation and Choir. The Quartet and Choir will perform Will Todd's Missa brevis and other well-known choruses.

With opportunities to join in, this is always a moving and atmospheric experience.
