A note from Micky, a regular member of our congregation and a volunteer at the Cathedral:

'I shall be taking part in the Race for Life on the Lincolnshire Showground July 19 at 11am. I am taking part as my daughter has recently been cured of a cancer, my beloved sister-in-law died suddenly of a difficult cancer and a much-loved son in law is at present fighting cancer. I also have a form which can be filled in for cash which I will send on to the organisation on behalf of those who do not do online. Warmest regards Micky Philp'

Support ANON Ensemble

ANON is a newly founded Lincoln-based chamber choir dedicated to reviving neglected and forgotten music by composers whose identities were never known, have been lost to time or were deliberately erased. The ensemble is directed by Tom Wilson, Vice-Chancellor of the Cathedral and Senior Lay Vicar in the Cathedral Choir, and many of the singers are past and present members of the cathedral choir.

Following a series of well-received recitals in the Chapter House, ANON is now taking the next step and launching as a fully professional group. Their official debut concert will take place in the Cathedral on Saturday 2nd August.

To support this next chapter, ANON has launched a fundraising campaign to help realise their vision for performance, education, and artistic research. To find out more or to support the campaign, please scan the QR code or visit:

THE ORDER FOR SUNG EUCHARIST

WELCOME TO LINCOLN CATHEDRAL

This service, and the other sung services during the week, are available online and we welcome all those joining our worship as it is live streamed on the cathedral's Facebook page and YouTube channel.

We kindly request that you do not take photographs or make sound recordings during the service, or during the rehearsals beforehand.

Any indications for sitting, kneeling or standing are given for guidance. If you need to sit at any point during the service, please feel free to do so.

Any young people are more than welcome to join the Sunday School that meets during the Sung Eucharist. If you would like more information, please ask one of the Cathedral Stewards.

All baptised Christians who usually receive communion are invited to do so. Please follow the directions of the stewards. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, please carry this booklet as a signal to the priest.

You are warmly invited to join us for tea and coffee in the Chapter House after the service.
All donations for refreshments go directly to the Nomad Trust.

During the time before the service, you may wish to use the following prayer as you prepare for worship:

Most merciful God, your love compels us to come in.
Our hands were unclean, our hearts were unprepared; we were not fit even to eat the crumbs from under your table.
But you, Lord, are the God of our salvation, and share your bread with sinners. So cleanse and feed us with the precious body and blood of your Son, that he may live in us and we in him, and that we, with the whole company of Christ, may sit and eat in your kingdom. Amen.

The Gathering

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Please stand to sing the hymn, during which the choir and ministers enter.

City of God, how broad and far outspread thy walls sublime!
The true thy chartered freemen are
of every age and clime.

One holy Church, one army strong,
one steadfast, high intent;
one working band, one harvest-song,
one King omnipotent.

How purely hath thy speech come down
from man's primaeval youth!
How grandly hath thine empire grown
of freedom, love, and truth!

How gleam thy watch-fires through the night
with never-fainting ray!
How rise thy towers, serene and bright,
to meet the dawning day!

In vain the surge's angry shock,
in vain the drifting sands:
unharm'd upon the eternal Rock
the eternal City stands.

Words: Samuel Johnson (1822–82)

SERMON

The Rev'd Canon John Patrick,
Prebendary of Centum Solidorum

A brief period of silent reflection is kept.

Stand and turn to face east.

THE NICENE CREED

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

OFFERTORY HYMN

During which the altar is prepared, gifts are offered, together with the prayer intentions made by those visiting the cathedral during the week. A collection to support the life work and ministry of the cathedral is taken and presented.

Light's abode, celestial Salem,
vision dear whence peace doth spring,
brighter than the heart can fancy,
mansion of the highest King;
O, how glorious are the praises
which of thee the prophets sing!

There for ever and for ever
alleluya is outpoured;
for unending, for unbroken
is the feast-day of the Lord;
all is pure and all is holy
that within thy walls is stored.

There no cloud nor passing vapour
dims the brightness of the air;
endless noon-day, glorious noon-day,
from the Sun of suns is there;
there no night brings rest from labour,
there unknown are toil and care.

O how glorious and resplendent,
fragile body, shalt thou be,
when endued with so much beauty,
full of health, and strong, and free,
full of vigour, full of pleasure
that shall last eternally!

Now with gladness, now with courage,
 bear the burden on thee laid,
 that hereafter these thy labours
 may with endless gifts be paid,
 and in everlasting glory
 thou with joy may'st be arrayed.

Laud and honour to the Father,
 laud and honour to the Son,
 laud and honour to the Spirit,
 ever Three and ever One,
 One in love, and One in splendour,
 while unending ages run.

Act of Spiritual Reception to say at home:

O loving God, in union with Christian people throughout the world and across the centuries gathered to make Eucharist, hearing your holy Word and receiving the Precious Body and Blood of your dear Son, I offer you praise and thanksgiving. Even though I am exiled from tasting the Bread of Heaven and drinking the Cup of Life I pray that you will unite me with all the baptised and with your Son who gave his life for us. Come Lord Jesus, dwell in me and send your Holy Spirit that I may be filled with your presence. Amen.

All baptised Christians who usually receive communion are invited to do so. Please follow the directions of the stewards. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, please carry this service booklet as a signal to the priest.

Those who wish to receive communion in both kinds are reminded that intinction (dipping an individual host into the wine) is not permitted to prevent the spread of infection, or contamination for those who are gluten intolerant.
