Support ANON Ensemble – www.anonensemble.org

ANON is a newly founded Lincoln-based chamber choir dedicated to reviving neglected and forgotten music by composers whose identities were never known, have been lost to time, or were deliberately erased. The ensemble is directed by Tom Wilson, Vice-Chancellor of the Cathedral and Senior Lay Vicar in the Cathedral Choir, and many of the singers are past and present members of the choir.

Following a series of well-received recitals in the Chapter House, ANON is now launching as a fully professional group. Their official debut concert will take place in the Cathedral on Saturday 2nd August.

Tickets are now available via the QR code or by visiting:

Play the Organ Year 2025

A message from Jeffrey Makinson, Organist and Assistant Director of Music:

'Organisations from across the organ and church music world are working together to promote Play the Organ Year 2025, a year-long project to increase the number of people playing the organ and appreciating its music.

The Royal College of Organists is taking a lead on this, promoting the instrument through a varied range of concerts and tutorial courses throughout the year.

Here in Lincoln, I am pleased to report that there are currently four promising young students who are receiving organ tuition. Each of them is either choristers or former choristers in the cathedral choir: Feola Akinfenwa, Ben Brown, Elsa Peel-Cobas, and Isaac Turner. To enrich their learning experience, we are inviting each student to play a short organ voluntary after Evensong one day. Ben performed J.S. Bach's Prelude and Fugue in G minor, from the 'Short Eight' Preludes and Fugues. The other students will perform early on in Michaelmas Term. I will keep you informed when this happens. Any words of support and encouragement which you might be able to give to these young pupils would be hugely appreciated.'

This service, and the other sung services during the week, are available online and we welcome all those joining our worship as it is live streamed on the cathedral's Facebook page and YouTube channel.

We kindly request that you do not take photographs or make sound recordings during the service, or during the rehearsals beforehand.

Any indications for sitting, kneeling or standing are given for guidance. If you need to sit at any point during the service, please feel free to do so.

Any young people are more than welcome to join the Sunday School that meets during the Sung Eucharist. If you would like more information, please ask one of the Cathedral Stewards.

All baptised Christians who usually receive communion are invited to do so. Please follow the directions of the stewards. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, please carry this booklet as a signal to the priest.

You are warmly invited to join us for tea and coffee in the Chapter House after the service.
All donations for refreshments go directly to the Nomad Trust.

During the time before the service, you may wish to use the following prayer as you prepare for worship

Most merciful God, your love compels us to come in.
Our hands were unclean, our hearts were unprepared; we were not fit even to eat the crumbs from under your table.
But you, Lord, are the God of our salvation, and share your bread with sinners. So cleanse and feed us with the precious body and blood of your Son, that he may live in us and we in him, and that we, with the whole company of Christ, may sit and eat in your kingdom. Amen.

The Gathering

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Please stand when the choir and ministers enter St Hugh's Choir.

How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
in a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
and drives away his fear.

It makes the wounded spirit whole,
and calms the troubled breast;
'tis manna to the hungry soul,
and to the weary rest.

Dear name! the rock on which I build,
my shield and hiding-place,
my never-failing treasury filled with boundless stores of grace.

Jesus! my Shepherd, Brother, Friend,
my Prophet, Priest, and King,
my Lord, my Life, my Way, my End, accept the praise I bring.

Weak is the effort of my heart,
and cold my warmest thought;
but when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.

Till then I would thy love proclaim with every fleeting breath;
and may the music of thy name refresh my soul in death.

Words: John Newton (1725–1807)

Music: NEH 374, Alexander Reinagle (1799–1877)

The Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING

DEUTERONOMY 30.9–14

At the end the reader says

This is the word of the Lord

All

Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL

PSALM 25.1-10

Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee:

O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me.

For all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed:

but such as transgress without a cause shall be put to confusion.

Shew me thy ways, O Lord: and teach me thy paths.

Lead me forth in thy truth, and learn me: for thou art the God of my salvation; in thee hath been my hope all the day long.

Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercies:

and thy loving-kindnesses, which have been ever of old.

O remember not the sins and offences of my youth:

but according to thy mercy think thou upon me,

O Lord, for thy goodness.

Gracious and righteous is the Lord:

therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

Them that are meek shall he guide in judgement:

and such as are gentle, them shall he learn his way.

All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth:

unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

For thy Name's sake, O Lord: be merciful unto my sin, for it is great.

SECOND READING

SERMON

The Rev'd Canon Prof. Peter Neil, Prebendary of Dunham

A brief period of silent reflection is kept.

Stand and turn to face the altar.

THE NICENE CREED

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Kneel or sit once the prayers of intercession have been introduced.

During these, the following, or a similar, response may be used.

The peace of the Lord be always with you

All and also with you.

We offer each other a sign of peace.

OFFERTORY HYMN

During which the altar is prepared, gifts are offered, together with the prayer intentions made by those visiting the cathedral during the week. A collection to support the life work and ministry of the cathedral is taken and presented.

Immortal love for ever full,
for ever flowing free,
for ever shared, for ever whole,
a never-ebbing sea!

Our outward lips confess the name,
all other names above;
love only knoweth whence it came and comprehendeth love.

We may not climb the heavenly steep to bring the Lord Christ down;
in vain we search the lowest deeps,
for him no depths can drown;

But warm, sweet, tender, even yet a present help is he;
and faith has still its Olivet,
and love its Galilee.

The healing of his seamless dress is by our beds of pain;
we touch him in life's throng and press
and we are whole again.

Through him the first fond prayers are said
our lips of childhood frame;
the last low whispers of our dead are burdened with his name.

Alone, O love ineffable, thy saving name is given;
to turn aside from thee is hell,
to walk with thee is heaven.

Words: John Whittier (1807–92)

Music: NEH 378, Jeremiah Clarke (c 1673–1707)

towers that may tell forth salvation, walls that may re-echo praise.

praise and magnify the Lord.
